WIFE WITNESSES HUBBY'S WHIPPING

CENTERVILLE, Md., December 1. —The wife beat and a crowd of the curious saw Laurence Stiner whaled at the public whipping-post in the jail-yard when the old law provided that punishment for cruel husbands was revived.

Stiner, his body bare to the waist, took the lashes across his back with fortitude. His wife grimly watched him writhe involuntarily as the whip cut his flesh. After the first three strokes, blood began to flow and the spectators, including the avenged wife, sighed in relief when the sixth blow fell and the culprit was led back to his cell, where the jail physician doctored his wounds.

Stiner welcomed the whipping. He said that he deserved the punishment and it was at his request that Mrs. Stiner was invited to view the proceeding.

The punishment was the second of the kind ever inflicted in Queen Anne county and the first since the whipping-post was revived.
